NLRFUMC MASK MAKERS

NLRFUMC MASK MAKERS:

Faith White, Sue White, Donna Drury, Laura Thompson, Margaret Richter, Becky Hawkins, Peggy Horton & Pastor Annie

Over 2,000 masks and counting supplied to: St. Vincent's Infirmary, Arkansas Children's Hospital, Methodist Behavior Hospital, CEC, Birmingham homeless population, Little Rock homeless population, UAMS Orthopedic Clinic - Autumn Road, North Little Rock School District, Autumn Hill, Ashley Health and Rehab, Brighton Ridge, Crawford health and rehab, Lakewood Therapy & living center, Saint Andrews place, Saint Michael's place, Woodland Hills Jacksonville, and Elmcroft.

Each week we continue to supply masks to incoming children at Methodist Behavioral Hospitals all over the state. We will make more donations to area hospitals as well. We will continue to sew and provide masks until there is no longer a need.

Community Spotlight: Faith White

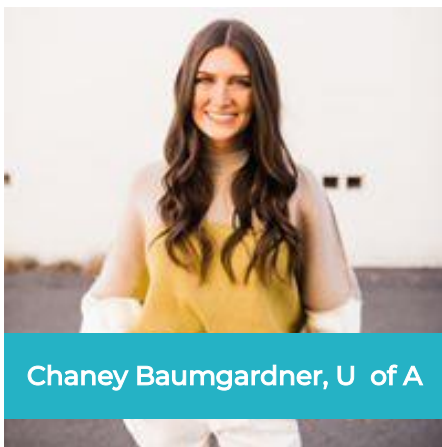

If the world had more people like Faith White, it would be a better place. Click the link below to watch the full interview of Faith on KATV news where she talks about Resiliency , and the NLRFUMC Mask Makers.

NLFUMC SENIORS 2020

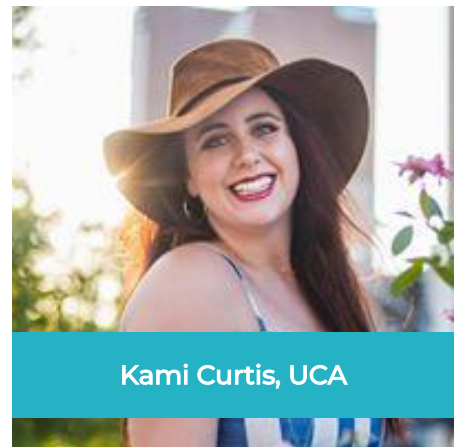

On May 17th, we honored our nine high school graduates. Due to COVID-19, they lost many lasts, so as a NLFUMC staff we made sure Senior Sunday was still on! Steven Carr, made a video of all of them in their regalia, or in Jay's case blanket, as his family was in the process of moving to Texas. One by one the video showed them walking across their make shift stage symbolizing closing one chapter and walking into another. This year we did something new as well for them, Mackenzie Turner asked them a few questions so that we could spotlight each one on our social media. You can see the full posts, and all of their accomplishments on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

MEET PASTOR PHIL

Our New Interim Pastor,
Rev. Phil Hathcock!

Phil Hathcock retired in 2013 after forty-one years as a pastor. His appointments in the Arkansas Conference included Eureka Springs, Siloam Springs and First UMC, Conway. He was appointed Superintendent of the Central District in 2004. For the three years prior to his retirement he was Director of Connectional Ministries and Assistant to the Bishop.

Since his retirement he has served interims at First UMC in Cabot, Trinity UMC in Little Rock, and the Union Church of San Juan, Puerto Rico. He served as a facilitator for the Perkins Preaching Excellence Project and was a member of the General Board of Discipleship Preaching Consultation Team.

For over twenty-five years he has been an on-air volunteer for the state public television network, AETN (now Arkansas PBS).

Phil and his wife, Gwen, reside in Maumelle, Arkansas. They have two children and four grandchildren.

by Matt Rawle

Pastor and author Matt Rawle is on a mission. He sees Christ all around him—in books, movies, TV shows, rock music—and he wants to share what he sees. As Matt says, "God offers the raw ingredients, and 'culture' is whatever we cook up." Hollywood Jesus is pastor and author Matt Rawle's study of Jesus and Christ figures in films including Cool Hand Luke, The Lion King, The Truman Show, and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Explore what happens when script meets Scripture, when pop culture encounters the King of kings and Lord of lords. Hollywood Jesus is part of The Pop in Culture Series of Bible studies in which Matt Rawle stirs up a tasty gumbo of insight, humor, and inspiration based on some of your favorite pop culture classics.
